Verify the Build on App Store Connect

Once the build finishes processing, you'll see the app icon and a warning triangle under the Status column. You're required to declare what type of encryption your app uses before it can be distributed. Click the Manage link next to Missing Compliance to resolve this.

Since your app doesn't use encryption, you can select the last option from the dialog ("None of the algorithms mentioned above") and click Save, as shown in the screenshot.

