Run the app and sign in. Then, put the app in the background by pressing the circle button to the right of the emulator.

In your machine’s browser, navigate to the Forest Park hike and click the heart to unlike the hike, then again to re-like it. You’ll see a tiny circle up in the status bar indicating a successful push notification.

Click and drag down from that area to open the notification drawer to view the full notification.