13. List the points to be noted before fixing the project topic.
14. State the situations where hypothesis testing is inevitable in a project work
15. List the components that decide the tool selection.

III. Give short answer to the following questions.

16. State the characteristics of a project
17. List the intangible benefits derived by doing a project work
18. State the stages involved in doing a project work
19. What are things to be included in the primary section of a project report?
20. What is a pretest in the questionnaire method?

IV. Give detailed answer to the following questions.

21. State the advantages of doing a project work?
22. Briefly explain the characteristics of various stages in a project work.
23. State the points kept in mind while writing the questionnaire
24. In project work planning, state the aspects to be focused?
25. Discuss the features of a project report.

Answers: Since the answers are part and parcel of the course and none of the questions have any problem, writing answers does not arise.

ANNEXURES

(These Annextures use for understanding purpose only and questions should not be asked in this portion)

SAMPLE PROJECT - TEMPLATE

Stage 1. Fixing the project work topic

A study on the prevalence of obesity among the students

Stage 2. Clearly state the objectives / Formulate Hypotheses

1. How the respondents are distributed in sex and community wise.
2. How obesity is prevalent among the college students?
3. Whether sex has any influence on obesity?
4. Whether diet intake and obesity are related?
5. Establish a simple linear equation (linear model) for prediction purpose between height and weight?
6. Do the male and female differs with respect to average height?
7. Whether the average weights of different diet takers can be taken as equal?

12th_Statistics_EM_Unit_9.indd 253 3/1/2019 12:44:54 PM