more timely and fair application of current laws. We also need new institutions such as bankruptcy courts and turnaround agents. Finally, we need a change in mindset, where the willful or non-cooperative defaulter is not lionized as a captain of industry, but justly chastized as a freeloader on the hardworking people of this country. I am sure that is a change in mindset that Dr Verghese Kurien would approve of.