Pakistani war, second (1965), insurgency (1989–1990), international diplomacy and, intractability of, as main source of Indo-Pakistani tension, militant organizations' goals, nuclear weapons and, peace dialogue to resolve, population of Kashmir, possible settlement of, standoff (1990), strategic environment changes and, as "unfinished business of partition," United Nations (UN) and, U.S. and British involvement in. See also Jammu and Kashmir (J&K)
Kashmiri National Conference
Khalistan
Khan, A. Q.
Khan, Maj. Gen. Muhammad Mustafa
Kidwai, Lt. Gen. Khalid
Kim Jong Il
Korea, North

Lahore, city of Lahore Declaration
Lakshman, Kanchan
Lamb, Alastair
Lashkar-e-Toiba line of control (LOC), cease-fire along, Kargil conflict and, Pakistan-backed militants and, standoff (2001–2002) and Lok Sabha
Lop Nor, Chinese nuclear test at

Malik, V. P.
Mao Zedong
Mazari, Shireen
Menon, Shivshankar
Mishra, Brajesh
missile defense. See ballistic missile defense (BMD)
Mistry, Dinshaw
Mountbatten, Lord Louis
Mukti Bahini
Mumbai attacks. See also terrorism
Musharraf, Pervez: jihadis and, Kargil crisis and, standoff (2001–2002) and, U.S.–Pakistan relationship and Muslim League
Muslims

Nambiar, Satish
National Investigative Agency (India)
Nehru, Jawaharlal
New Dehli, city of
Northwest Frontier Province (NWFP)
Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty (NPT)
nuclear powers, emerging nuclear proliferation, conventional balance of power and, destabilizing effect of, differing approaches to, international concern over, optimistic and pessimistic views of, outcome-