4 The Baghdad Pact was a defensive organisation for promoting shared political, military and economic goals, founded in 1955, by Turkey, Iraq, Great Britain, Pakistan and Iran. The main purpose of the Baghdad Pact was to prevent communist incursions and foster peace in the Middle East. It was renamed the Central Treaty Organization, or CENTO, in 1959 after Iraq pulled out of the Pact.
5 SEATO was an international organisation for collective defence in Southeast Asia created by the Southeast Asia Collective Defense Treaty, or Manila Pact, signed in September 1954 in Manila, Philippines.
