Appendix B: Excerpts from Baburnama translation by Annette Susannah Beveridge (Events of Unchronicled Years)

1The Tarikh-i-Rashidi gives the names of two only of the champions but Firishta, writing much later gives all five; we surmise that he found his five in the book of which copies are not now known, the Tārīkh-i Muḥ. ʻĀrif Qandahārī. Firishta's five are ʻAli shab-kūr (night-blind), ʻAlī Sīstānī, Naẓar Bahādur Aūzbeg, Yaʻqūb tez-jang (swift in fight), and Aūzbeg Bahādur. Ḥaidar's two names vary in the MSS. of the Tarikh-i-Rashidi but represent the first two of Firishta's list.

2 There are curious differences of statement about the date of Shaybānī's death, possibly through confusion between this and the day on which preliminary fighting began near Merv. Ḥaidar's way of expressing the date carries weight by its precision, he giving roz-i-shakk of Ramẓān, i.e. a day of which there was doubt whether it was the last of Shaʻbān or the first of Ramẓān (Lane, yauma'u'l-shakk). As the sources support Friday for the day of the week and on a Friday in the year AH 915 fell the 29th of Shaʻbān, the date of Shaybānī's death seems to be Friday Shaʻbān 29th AH 915 AH (Friday, 2 December of AD 1510).

3 According to Annette Susannah Beveridge, the Turkī passage concerning wines drunk by Babur which I have noted on Folio 49 was during this occupation of Kābul. This is for the first time when Babur broke the Law against stimulants.

4 R.S. Poole found a coin which he took to be one struck in obedience to Babur's compact with the Shāh (B.M.Cat. of the coins of Persian Shāhs 1887, pp. xxiv et seq.; (Dughlat, 1551 p. 246)).

5 It was held by Aḥmad-i-qāsim Kohbur and is referred to on Folio 234b of Baburnama, as one occasion of those in which Dost Beg distinguished himself.

6*aūrūq*. Bābur refers to this exodus on Folio 12b of Baburnama when writing of Daulat-sulṭān Khānīm.

7It is one recorded with some variation, in Niyāz Muḥammad Khukandī's Tārīkh-i-shāhrukhī (ʻAshūr, 1885) and Nalivkine's Khānate of Khokand (p. 63). It says that when Bābur in 918 AH (1512 AD) left Samarkand after defeat by the Aūzbegs, one of his wives, Sayyida Āfāq who accompanied him in his
