to this.’[33] The next Deshmukh heard of the matter was when C.B. Mehta withdrew, clearing the way for Purshotamdas to be elected unopposed. A few years later the Sardar also cast his influence at Deshmukh’s instance against the premature nationalization of the Imperial Bank. The Finance Minister, Shanmukham Chetty, wanted to nationalize the Imperial Bank, which Deshmukh thought premature. Deshmukh sent word to Vallabhbhai and the matter was dropped.
