pp. 56–57.

26 N. Vaghul and S.A. Dave (Compiled), R.K. Talwar: Tributes, p. 65.

27 Ibid.

28 P.G. Kakodkar, Op. Cit., pp. 129–130.

29 Speech of R.K. Talwar, Chairman, at the fifteenth annual general meeting of shareholders at Ahmedabad on March 26, 1970, The Chairman, p. 93.

30 Speech of R.K. Talwar, Chairman, at the nineteenth annual general meeting of shareholders at Madras on March 29, 1974, The Chairman, p. 122.

31 Ibid.

32 Abhik Ray, ESBI (Vol. 4), p. 206.

33 Speech of R.K. Talwar, Chairman, at the twentieth annual general meeting of shareholders at Bombay on March 31, 1975, The Chairman, p. 135.

34 Speech of R.K. Talwar, Chairman, at the fourteenth annual general meeting of shareholders at Bombay on March 24, 1969, The Chairman, pp. 85–86.

35 N. Vaghul and S.A. Dave (Compiled), R.K. Talwar: Tributes, p. 33.

36 Abhik Ray, ESBI (Vol. 4), pp. 541–542.

37 Ibid., p. 544.

38 N. Vaghul and S.A. Dave (Compiled), R.K. Talwar: Tributes, p. 34.

39 Abhik Ray, ESBI (Vol. 4), p. 268.

40 Quoted in ESBI (Vol. 4), p. 272–273.

41 Ibid., p. 273.

42 P.G. Kakodkar, Op. Cit., p. 265.

43 N. Vaghul, Op. Cit., p. 22.

44 Kakodkar has a slightly different version. According to him the bank had appointed a committee of chartered accountants to undertake a viability study and based on their report the bank had declined further finance to the unit. Talwar was being pressurized to provide further finance despite the adverse report.