1929, and how later his younger aunt, Harnam Kaur (the wife of the deceased Swaran Singh), visited him on 23 April 1923 (Lahore Archives, previously unpublished).

(6) On the first day of the new trial before the special tribunal at Poonch House, on 5 May 1930, Bejoy Kumar Sinha, Shiv Verma and Jai Dev Kapoor, and the others, complain to the tribunal that they ‘have been brought to trial without sufficient notice’ and that ‘petitioners have at present no Counsel to defend them’, so that ‘it has not been possible for these reasons to draw up their line of defence’. This is why they were now requesting ‘that the hearing be adjourned for a fortnight’ so that they can
