(7) On the first day of the new trial before the special tribunal, on 5 May 1930, Bhagat Singh asked for ‘an interview allowed to me with my father during the lunch interval’, but with Justice Coldstream ruling immediately that ‘arrangements for interview during court hours cannot be made . . .’ (Lahore Archives, previously unpublished).

5

In the Court of the Special Tribunal, Lahore

Respectfully sheweth.—

1. That it is prayed that an interview allowed to me with my father during the lunch interval. ~~and oblige~~.

Bhagat Singh
Petitioner

5/5/30

Arrangements for interviews during Court hours cannot be made unless there are very urgent grounds which should be stated.

5/5/30

(8) On the second day of the new trial before the special tribunal at Poonch House, on 6 May 1930, the superintendent of Lahore Central Jail, Major Chopra, wrote to the registrar of the special tribunal, giving him a categoric