assurance ‘that the two accused, Bhagat Singh and B.K. Sinha, being undertrials in the Lahore Conspiracy Case, are allowed interviews at the Jail with their relatives once a week, and with legal counsel whenever their accredited counsels have applied for interview’. The practice, however, would be different, as subsequent events were to show (Lahore Archives, previously unpublished).

Special Tribunal,
Lahore Conspiracy Case,
LAHORE.

No. 262-G dated 6.5.1930.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.6T without date received today. I have the honour to state that the two accused Bhagat Singh and B.K. Dutt being undertrials in the Lahore Conspiracy Case are allowed interviews at the Jail with their relatives once a week and with legal counsel whenever their accredited counsels have applied for an interview.

2. In addition to above when the case was being tried by the Special magistrate in the Lahore Central Jail Court the two above accused were allowed interviews with their relatives daily during luncheon interval. The application for such interviews were sent to me for sanction through the special magistrate.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Major I.M.S.,
Superintendent Central Jail, Lahore.
