

(12) Following Bhagat Singh's petition of 11 August 1930 to the Lahore High Court that it intervene to pass an order guaranteeing the restoration of interviews for the proper preparation of his trial now that he had to put up a defence before the special tribunal, there was an immediate response from the jail authorities after the close of the prosecution case on 12 August