

Hon'ble vacation Judge might please say what he would like done with this petition from Bhagat Singh, one of the accused in the Lahore conspiracy case. The man states (para 5) that the jail authorities have stopped his interviews with pleaders and relatives; he claims in para 6 that this is hampering the cause of justice and is also illegal; in paras 10 and 11 he prays that the High Court will be pleased to issue orders that he should be allowed interviews again.

2. Ordinance No: III of 1930 is to "provide specially for the trial of the accused in the cases known as the Lahore conspiracy case" and under section 11 thereof the High Court has no jurisdiction in respect of any proceeding under it. The forbidding of interviews by the jail authorities does not seem to have much to do with the trial of the accused and I should say on the whole that it is not a proceeding under the Ordinance unless of course the jail authorities were directed to

(13) Such was the underhanded and duplicitous way that the jail authorities conducted themselves that even when they acceded to Bhagat Singh's request of 11 August, they only did so to the extent that 'interviews with legal advisers alone may be allowed'. So on 15 August 1930, Bhagat Singh wrote to say that he was 'at loss to understand the reason of such an order
