When we wish to draw your attention to a particular part of a code block, the relevant lines or items are set in bold:

class HomeController < ApplicationController before_filter :authenticate_user!

def index
end

Any command-line input or output is written as follows:

$ rails generate controller home index

New terms and important words are shown in bold. Words that you see on the screen, in menus or dialog boxes for example, appear in the text like this: "Very often, when you visit the login page of a website, you will see the text Remember Me with a checkbox beside it."

Warnings or important notes appear in a box like this.

Tips and tricks appear like this.

Reader feedback

Feedback from our readers is always welcome. Let us know what you think about this book—what you liked or may have disliked. Reader feedback is important for us to develop titles that you really get the most out of.
