Causes: The exact cause is not known

- Genetic causes and hereditary
- Bio chemical – abnormalities in dopamine, epinephrine, serotonin.
- Psychological factors – impaired ego, crisis situation
- Family factors – parent – child relationship, family dysfunction
- Social causes – social crisis,
- Endocrine and metabolic causes.

Types of Schizophrenia

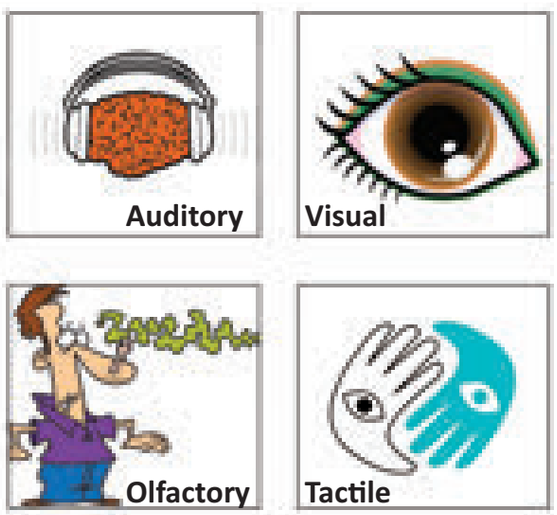

- Paranoid Schizophrenia -
- Hebephrenic Schizophrenia
- Catatonic Schizophrenia
- Undifferentiated Schizophrenia
- Post schizophrenic depression
- Residual Schizophrenia
- Simple Schizophrenia
- Schizo typal disorder

Symptoms of Schizophrenia

Positive Symptoms	Negative Symptoms
Delusions (false unshakable belief)	Affective flattening
Hallucinations (Sensory perception without any external stimuli)	Avolition-Apathy (lack of initiative)
Excitement/Agitation	Attention impairment
Aggressive behaviour	Anhedonia (Inability to experience pleasure)
Suspiciousness (doubt)	Alogia (lack of speech output)
Suicidal tendencies

Types of Hallucinations

Hallucination	Example
Auditory hallucination	hears voices frequently, the voice tells when to eat, dress, and go to bed each night
Visual hallucination	seeing spiders and snakes on the ceiling of his room without any external stimuli
Olfactory hallucination	smells rotten garbage, although there is no evidence of any foul-smelling material in the room.
Gustatory (taste) hallucination	complaints of a constant taste of salt water in mouth.
Tactile hallucination	complaints of feeling worms crawling all over body.

Diagnosis

1. History collection
2. Substance history
3. CT, MRI and brain studies
4. Blood investigations
5. Mental status examination

Unit_10_Mental_health_Gen_Nur.indd 224 09-03-2020 15:07:09