Types of Dressing (7 types)

1. Hydrogel
2. Colloid
3. Hydrocolloid
4. Alginate
5. Foams
6. Clothe dressing
7. Transparent dressing

Purposes of wound dressing

1. Protect the wound from infectious microorganisms
2. Promote Healing by absorbing drainage
3. Promote homeostasis
4. Protect the wound site with dressing

Articles required for wound care

S.No	Articles	Purpsose
A sterile Tray containing (Dressing pack)
1.	Artery forceps - 1	To clean the wound
2.	Dissecting forceps -2
3.	Scissors - 1	For debridement of the wound
4.	A small bowl	To keep the solution for cleaning the wound
5.	Sterile cotton balls	To clean and dress the wound
6.	Sterile Gauze Pieces
7.	Sterile Pads
8.	Sterile Gloves	To protect and prevent infection
9.	Sterile Towel	To create a sterile area around the wound
10.	Sterile Bandages
A unsterile Tray contains
1.	Cleaning solutions (Betadine, Hydrogen peroxide, Normal saline)	To clean the wound
2.	Antiseptic ointment (Povidone)	To apply on the wound
3.	Bandages, Adhesive Plaster	To fix the dressing in its site.
4.	Transfer forceps	To transfer the sterile articles and dressing
5.	Vaseline gauze (in a sterile box)	To prevent the dressing sticking on the wound
5	Mask, Apron	To protect and prevent the transmission of infection
6.	Sterile swab sticks in a container	To apply medications if necessary
7.	Kidney tray	To discard the waste
9.	Mackintosh and towel	To protect the patient and bed

Procedure

S.No	Action	Rationale
1.	Tie the mask	To prevent infection
	Wash hands with soap and water or an alcohol-based hand rub	To prevent cross infection
2.	Use sterile gown, gloves, etc., as required	To protect from contamination.

Practical 1-8.indd 322 09-03-2020 15:33:10