Athlete's foot	-	Also referred to as tinea pedis (foot), it is a fungal infection of the feet
Sunburn	-	Burning of the skin as the result of exposure to the sun
Albinism	-	Defective melanin that causes an abnormal coloration of the skin and hair
Herpes	-	A viral infection
Impetigo	-	A contagious skin condition that appears as a rash on the skin
Psoriasis	-	Thick skin surface as the result of an abnormal buildup of cells on the skin surface
Rosacea	-	A skin disorder that causes redness and skin break outs
Ligaments	-	Connective tissue with collagen at the point of articulation
Tendons	-	Connective tissue with collagen that allow joint movement
Fascia	-	Connective tissue that connects muscles to other muscles
Fractures	-	The breakage of a bone
Greenstick fracture	-	A fracture that occurs when only one side of the bone is fractured
Dislocation	-	The joints are completely separated and are no longer articulated and connected with each other
Arthritis	-	One of the many types of skeletal disorders that is characterized with the inflammation of one or more skeletal joints in the body
Rheumatoid arthritis	-	A type of arthritis that affects the younger population, auto immune disorder
Osteomyelitis	-	An infection of bone tissue
Glial cells	-	A type of nervous system cell, other than a neuron, that forms myelin which is the covering or sheath over parts of the neuron
Synapse	-	The point at which neurons gently touch each other to send or receive a nerve impulse or message.
Meninges	-	The protective membrane that covers the brain and the spinal cord
Brain	-	The major organ of the body that controls and manages virtually all physiological and emotion bodily responses
Pons	-	The mid-section of the part of brain stem that connects to the midbrain above and the medulla below and the part that controls the rhythm of respirations
Reflex	-	A muscle reaction that automatically occurs in response to a certain type of stimulus, or stimulation
Seizures	-	Abnormal nervous system nerve activity in the brain that can lead to a wide variety of signs and symptoms including uncontrolled body movement and jerking or a short lapse of consciousness
Stroke	-	An episode of bleeding or a clot in the brain that causes symptoms and damage to the brain and its functioning
Epilepsy	-	A group of disorders that lead to seizures

Unit_1_Human_physiology_Gen_Nur.indd 36 09-03-2020 13:03:08