ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All I started with at the beginning of this book was a clear intent to bring out India’s efforts in fighting this once-in-a-century global pandemic. The anti-news and counter-propaganda to malign my country affected me deeply. However, as days passed during the journey of the book, unimaginable doors opened up and I received assistance from unexpected individuals. To all of you, a big, heartfelt thank you—without you the book wouldn’t be anywhere near what it is. It is clear that the common thread that binds us all is incredible love for our nation.

Thank you to the fabulous team at Rupa Publications—in particular, Kapish Mehra, Dibakar Ghosh and Manali Das. You have been more than patient with me. The advice and assistance you have offered throughout the book has been top-class. I couldn’t have asked for better partners.

And lastly, but more importantly, I want to express my most sincere gratitude to my family for their patience, advice, support and encouragement. You all make up the pieces of my heart.
