to unnecessary rumour-mongering and superstition, the prime minister ended his address to the nation.