Introduction

I want to thank you and congratulate you for purchasingthe book, “ World History ” .

This book contains the history of the entire world, as we know it.

From the earliest periods of humanity to the modern age, history has long fascinated the public. There are many lessons to be learned from each country and each geographical location. Over the last several thousand years, countless empires and cultures have risen to great heights, only to be brought low, toppled by new civilizations. Each civilization has contributed to various human achievements, which we continue to learn as we progress into the future.

Thanks again for downloading this book, I hope you enjoy it! If you do enjoy it, can you please leave a review on Amazon? I would greatly appreciate it.
