to Colombo service should continue to be successful, there was even talk of a new direct service between Tuticorin and Singapore.[167] But this was not to be: a coup was being hatched in the upper echelons of the company to dethrone V.O. Chidambaram Pillai.