NALLAPERUMAL PILLAI, S.V. (1880–1948). Trader, landlord and philanthropist of Tuticorin. Original promoter of SSNCo.

NELLAIYAPPA PILLAI, PARALI S. (1889–1971). VOC's assistant along with his brothers Shanmugasundaram Pillai and Kuzhandaivelan Pillai, all employed in SSNCo. Lifelong admirer of VOC and his first biographer. A respected journalist in later life.

PADMANABHA AIYANGAR, S. (1868–1937). Swadeshi agitator arrested along with VOC and Siva.

PANDITHURAI THEVAR, P. (1867–1911). Member of Ramnad royal family. Zamindar of Palavanatham. Tamil scholar, philanthropist and patron of arts and literature. President of SSNCo who invested in the company until the last.

SIVA, SUBRAMANIA (1883–1925). Joins VOC in the Swadeshi campaign during January–March 1908. Is imprisoned for sedition along with VOC.

SOMASUNDARA BHARATI, S. (1879–1959). Lawyer and Tamil scholar. Manager of SSNCo.

SUBRAMANIA IYER, G. (1855–1916). A founding member of the Indian National Congress. A founding editor of The Hindu and Swadesamitran. Strong champion of SSNCo.

VEDAMURTHI MUDALIAR, S. Journalist. Deputed by VOC to purchase steamers for SSNCo.

VENKATARAMA AIYAR, K.R. Younger brother of K.R. Guruswami Aiyar. Lawyer. Ardent Swadeshi. Plays a leading role in the company after VOC's arrest.