9 January	Subramania Siva makes his first appearance in Tirunelveli.
11 January	Chennai Jana Sangam formed in Madras by VOC and others.
February	Regular Swadeshi meetings on Tuticorin beach. Addressed by VOC and Siva. Later joined by Padmanabha Aiyangar. Robert William D'Escourt Ashe takes charge as sub-collector and joint magistrate of Tuticorin division. VOC forced to resign as assistant secretary. Appointed on a salaried position as 'superintendent'/'agent'.
27 February–7 March	Workers of the British-owned Coral Mills strike work. Reserve police arrives from Sivakasi. VOC organizes relief and negotiates with mill management and district administration headed by Ashe.
7 March	Workers return to work after all demands are met. SSNCo's board of directors pressurize VOC to either resign from the company or stop all political activity.
8 March	VOC and Siva charged under security section of CrPC. Huge meeting at Tuticorin where VOC and Siva make emotional speeches.
9 March	Celebrations for Bipin Chandra Pal's release postponed as VOC and Siva appear before Wynch in Tirunelveli. However, VOC speaks at the celebrations in Tirunelveli.
10 March	VOC returns to Tuticorin briefly to conduct the celebrations for Pal's release in Tuticorin before returning to Tirunelveli to attend security proceedings.
12 March	VOC defies Wynch's orders to leave the district. Arrested along with Siva and Padmanabha Aiyangar.
13 March	Tirunelveli and Tuticorin erupt in violence. Protesters damage public property. Four killed in police firing. Hundreds arrested.
25 March	VOC released as high court quashes security proceedings but is immediately rearrested on charges of sedition.
1 April	The Tirunelveli and Tuticorin Deputation meets Governor Arthur Lawley.
Early June	VOC resigns from SSNCo.
3 July	At the general meeting of SSNCo's shareholders, it is resolved to double the authorized capital.
7 July	VOC is given two life imprisonments—one for abetting Siva's seditious speeches and another for his own speeches. He is lodged in Coimbatore Central Jail.
November	High court upholds VOC's conviction but reduces his sentence to six years of rigorous imprisonment.
December	Wynch demits charge as Tirunelveli collector.

1909

January	Subramania Bharati launches a fund to support SSNCo. Mandayam family invests heavily to turn SSNCo around.
July	SSNCo begins coastal trade with the Lawoe.
15 August	Annual report (1908–09) of SSNCo released.
September	A board of 'Provisional Trustees' set up to support SSNCo.