[24] The Hindu, 26-3-1908. As we noted in Chapter 2, Gonsalves was one of the first traders whom VOC approached to join the company. But he had reneged from the Swadeshi cause, receiving a loan from BI and was one of the few Tuticorin traders to continue to ship with it. Ironically, the friendship between VOC and Gonsalves was renewed when VOC relocated to Tuticorin in the last years of his life.
