[22] Srinivasachari, ‘Indian Freedom Movement and Our Family Reminiscences’, part 1, p. 38.

[23] A police report confirms that Srinivasachari was attending SSNCo’s office daily and auditing its accounts (MPAI, 1909, para 575(a)). After a week or so, later in May, he left for Pondicherry via Madurai, only to return to Tuticorin towards the end of the month where he spent a few days before leaving for Madras on 1 June (MPAI, 1909, paras 619(a) and (b); 645; 663).

[24] MPAI 1909, para 537 confirms their meeting on 23 April 1909. Srinivasachari returned to Tuticorin on 9 May (MPAI, 1909, para 575(a)).

[25] The Tirunelveli district collector’s remark of 27-2-1909 confirms this transaction but gives a figure of Rs 2 lakh (MPAI, 1909, para 238(c)). He also confused Mandayam and Palghat.

[26] MPAI, 1909, para 575(b). However, the report confuses between S.N. Thirumalachari, his first cousin and S. Thirumalachari, his elder brother.
