[72] Copy of the notice. We know little about the others who were pursued by the official liquidator except for one or two brief notes from police intelligence. One M.R. Ramachandra Aiyar, a lawyer, is said to have left Kanchipuram for Tirunelveli to attend a civil suit (July 1912) regarding SSNCo (MPAI, 1912, 947). Another civil suit had been filed on K.R. Appadurai Aiyar for collecting Rs 30,000 on behalf of SSNCo but remitting only Rs 1,000; if the malfeasance is true, it does not quite square up with the fact that he was working as an assistant in a Tamil journal for a monthly salary of Rs 50 (MPAI, 1912, paras 1173 and1532).
