6 Management

5AB8HB

Learning Objectives

- Obtain thorough knowledge of principles of management
- Understand the basic functions to be performed by a food service manager
- Focus attention on the utility of each resources available for food service manager.

Food service managers need to be proactive and stay ahead instead of being reactive. Proactive managers continuously analyze the business environment and work for the improvement. The managers should have concern for employees and customers besides dealing with food service operations. They need to adopt management principles, managerial roles and managerial functions for efficient outcome. Management experts have developed a set of principles of management to guide managers to take managerial decisions. Hence it is necessary to understand and comprehend the principles and functions of management.

Harold Koontz defines management as "the art of getting things done through and with people in formally organized groups. It is the art of creating an environment in which people can perform as individuals and co-operate towards the attainment of groups goals".

6.1 Principles and Functions of Management

6.1.1 Principles of Management

Henry Fayol puts forward some basic principles to be followed by the catering manager.

Fayol's Principles of Management

1. Division of work
2. Authority and Responsibility
3. Discipline
4. Unity of Command
5. Unity of Direction
6. Individual Goals Subordinate to establishment goals
7. Payment or Remuneration
8. Scalar Chain
9. Orderliness
10. Loyalty and devotion

FSM_Chapter 06.indd 134 1/13/2020 10:10:02 AM