- The recommendations will be sent to HRACC Division (Ministry of Tourism, Government of India) within 5 working days.
- The recommendation of the HRACC inspection committee will be approved by the Chairperson (HRACC) / Additional Director General (Tourism) expeditiously.

To start a food business / food service organization, a lot of rules and regulations need to be followed. This is because any kind of negligence in a food business can be fatal for the consumer. So food business has to undergo a lot of compliance. Therefore a food business needs a whole host of licenses and permits to run smoothly without any intervention.

Licenses and Registrations for a Food Service Organization

What are the licenses required to start a food service organization?

(i) FSSAI (Food Safety and Standards Authority License)

(ii) Liquor License

(iii) Health / Trade License

(iv) Goods Service Tax (GST) Registration

(v) Fire Department

(vi) Lift Clearance

(vii) Music License

(viii) Certificate of Environmental Clearance

(ix) Signage License

(i) FSSAI (Food Safety and Standards Authority License)

The Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006 has brought in tremendous changes to the food industry with an effort to make available to consumers, safe and standardized foods.

The food safety and standards Act, 2006 has made FSSAI registration mandatory for food business operators and food products.

Types of FSSAI Registration

FSSAI registration for food business can be obtained through the FSSAI Food Licensing and Registration System. FSSAI registration for food business falls under one of three categories.

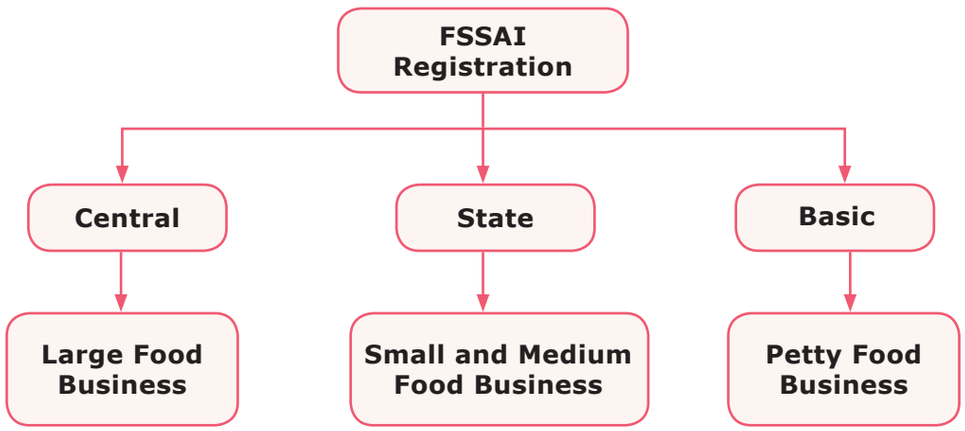

Figure 9.2 FSSAI Registration

FSM_Chapter 09.indd 178 1/13/2020 11:34:10 AM