- Details of Public hearing
- NOC granted by State regulators.

The restaurateur should submit the above documents with the application to obtain certificate of Environmental clearance.

How to get the certificate of Environmental clearance

- Acquiring the certificate also involves screening, scoping and evaluation of the project to examine its impact on the environment.

(ix) Signage License

Marketing of the products through word of mouth, logos, posters, pictures and symbols, required to obtain a legal permit which is the signage license.

This license can obtain from local civil authorities like the Municipal corporations.

9.3 Various Acts Governing Food Establishments

9.3.1 The Factories Act (1948)

In India the first Factories Act was passed in 1881. This Act was basically designed to protect children and to provide few measures for health and safety of the workers.

This law was applicable to only those factories, which employed 100 or more workers.

The Recommended committee was accepted by GOI in 1948 and Present Act (ie) the Factories Act 1948 was enacted.

Objectives

- To ensure adequate safety measures
- To promote the health and welfare of the workers
- To prevent haphazard growth of factories
- To regulate the working conditions
- To relieve workers from industrial fatigue
- To improve the image, growth and development of industries
- To reduce wastage and increase efficiency in an organization
- To maintain industrial peace and stability

Main provisions of the Factories Act

a) Health
b) Safety
c) Welfare
d) Working hours of adults
e) Annual leave with wages

a) Provisions regarding health

The occupier of factory is obligated to undertake the following measures for ensuring good health and physical fitness.

- Cleanliness
- Disposal of wastes and effluents
- Ventilation and temperature
- Artificial humidification

FSM_Chapter 09.indd 182 1/13/2020 11:34:10 AM