1.2 Meaning of Management

Management functions include, planning, organising, staffing, directing, and controlling an organisation. Management in all business is the art of getting people together, to accomplish desired goals using available resources. Individual or group of individual working in the organisation want to accept their responsibilities to run the organisation. Management does not do the work themselves, they motivate all the worker to attain the organisational goal. Management brings together all six M's (i.e.) Men, Material, Machines, Methods and Markets to attain the objectives.
