4. Esteem needs: Include internal factors such as self-respect, autonomy and achievement, external factors such as status, recognition and attention. It can be provided through regular positive feedback, prestigious job titles, photographs in company news letter, promotions etc.
5. Self actualization needs: The drive to become what one is capable of becoming; includes growth, achieving one's potential and self fulfillment, Challenging job alignments, Promotion opportunities and encouraging creativity are fulfilling these needs.

According to Maslow, if you want to motivate someone you need to understand at what level of hierarchy that person is currently on and focus on satisfying needs at or above that level to move forward.

Maslow separated the five needs into higher and lower orders.

- Lower order Needs – Physiological and safety needs.
- Higher order Needs – Social, and self actualisation.

Higher order needs are satisfied internally (within the person) whereas lower order needs are predominantly satisfied externally (by things such as pay).
