

Application of X and Y Theory:

Case Study – 1

Vibrant is a departmental store which works without bosses. It follows decentralisation and employees are held responsible for the work allotted to them. People who enjoy their job takes initiative, are self-motivated and creative are only employed whereas people who are lazy needed supervision are laid off.

Discussion:

1. Identify which motivation theory Vibrant follows.
2. Discuss whether assumptions of the identified theory fit to Vibrant.

Case study – 2

Mrs. Shyla, health care professional with 5 years of experience in health centre wants to develop a teenage health education program. Permission was denied from her immediate new supervisor. Her previous supervisor used to encourage such initiatives. She got fed up and demotivated.

Discussion:

1. Discuss the type of motivation theory followed by the two supervisors?
2. How can Mrs. Shyla approach her problem in job?

Situation Analysis:

One fine day, at 7.30. a.m, the secretary of an organization calls the General Manager over phone and says, "Dear Mr. Ashok, you need not come to the office from today. Your account will be settled and you will receive the cheque by today evening."

Discussion:

1. If you were the secretary, how would you handle the situation in a better way?
2. If you were the General Manager, how would you respond?

Points to Remember

Meaning of Motivation:

Motivation is the process of channeling a person's inner drives so that he works to accomplish the goals of organization.

Definition of Motivation:

Motivation means a process of stimulating people to action to accomplish goals.

- William G. Scott

XII OSS_English version CHAPTER 08.indd 111 1/7/2020 6:07:50 PM