of the organisations. Implementation of strategic decisions would require heavy investments and also greater commitment on the part of the staff. The decision to introduce a new product in the market or install very expensive machinery is an example of a strategic decision.

8. Routine Decisions:
Are taken for the functioning of the organisations. Much evaluation is not required. So it can be taken quickly. Though the decision is taken for routine activity powers are given to lower level management to take this kind of decision within their limit.

4.9 Case Study: Decision Making for Successfull Startup Business

The Tamil Nadu Handloom weavers cooperative society, popularly known as Co-optex, is a cooperative traditional handloom and weavers of the Indian state of Tamil Nadu. This is under the control of Department of Handlooms, Handicrafts, Textiles and Khadi (Tamil Nadu) of Government of Tamil Nadu. The organisation owns a number of shopping outlets in Tamil Nadu. Co-optex also has an international presence, Co-optex International which exports its products to Germany, France, Netherlands, Belgium, Spain, Switzerland, Canada, Greece, Hong Kong, U.K, South Africa and the U.A.E. First time in 13 years, the state-owned handloom textile marketer Co-optex came out of record earning Rs 2 Crore profit during 2012-13. It recorded a sale turnover of Rs.245 crore and made a profit of Rs 2 crore as explained by its Managing Director on April 13, 2013 in a press statement. He said Co-optex, which has 203 showrooms, including around 70 outside Tamil Nadu had set a sales target of Rs 400crore for the current fiscal. To boost the sales, new varieties would be launched and a fashion show would be held in Chennai. He said adding similar event would be held in other cities.

Question

1. Evaluate the success story of co-optex and its record earning profits.

   (Students refer co-optex and Tamil nadu govt official website and identify what key decisions made co-optex success to a new path particularly in the year 2013).

   This case was taken in the context of co-optex success in the year of 2013.
