GLOSSARY

Coordination	It is concerned with the objective of harmonizing the activities of the different departments of an enterprise in order to achieve the common goal.
Cooperation	Cooperation can usually be preserved when a new member is introduced.
Reciprocity	Reciprocity refers to Mutuality among the employees working in the organisation.
Indoctrinating	Indoctrinating refers to training the organizational members with the goals and mission of the organization can transform a neutral body into a committed body.
Direction	It is concerned with issuing the orders and instructions to the subordinates.
Integrative force	It is mainly concentrated about what, when, where and who to do the work.
Delegation	Delegation is the assignment or obligation of any responsibility or authority to another person to carry out specific activities.
Supervision	Supervision refers to a cooperative relationship between the leader and one or more person to accomplish a particular job.

QUESTIONS

PART- A

Objective type Questions (1 Mark)

Choose the correct answer:

1. Coordination is an essential for achieving a _____.
   a. Balanced organisational performance
   b. Imbalanced organisational performance
   c. Organisational objectives
   d. All the above
2. Through _____ with people, the coordination can be achieved.
   a. Direct personal contact
   b. Telephonic contact
   c. Sending mail
   d. None of the above
3. Goodwill refers to the _____ of the organisation.
   a. Reputation
   b. Teamwork
   c. Coordination
   d. Morality

MKW1G1

4. _____ is the highest coordinating power in an organisation.
   a. Authority
   b. Power
   c. Centralisation
   d. Decentralisation
5. _____ refers to Mutuality among the employees working in the organisation.
   a. Reciprocity
   b. Goodwill
   c. Management
   d. Team spirit

XII OSS_English version CHAPTER 05.indd 67 1/7/2020 5:53:33 PM