several honours and awards, including the Ramon Magsaysay award, the UN Human Rights prize, and the Gandhi Peace Prize.

In 1990, Amte left Anandwan to take part in the Narmada Bachao Andolan, and lived on the banks of the Narmada for seven years.

IN SERVICE OF HUMANITY

This section features four individuals whose brave, thoughtful and pioneering attempts to solve problems and help people in need made an impact in India and beyond.