QUDSIA AIZAZ RASUL

1908–2001

“…THE WOMEN OF INDIA ARE HAPPY TO STEP INTO THEIR RIGHTFUL HERITAGE OF COMPLETE EQUALITY WITH MEN…”

From purdah to Parliament

Qudsia Aizaz Rasul was born into a junior branch of the ruling family of Malerkotla. She grew up in a wealthy household, where her father’s involvement in politics nurtured her own interest in public service. However, it was only after her marriage to a landowner named Nawab Aizaz Rasul in 1929 that she began to actively take part in politics. She won a seat on the United Provinces (now Uttar Pradesh) Legislative Council in
