In addition to the above-proposed amendments with respect to constitutionally naming the country as Bharat, the insertion of Part I-A to the Constitution after Part I was proposed by Shibban Lal Saxena. Following is the relevant portion of the amendment proposed by him:

> Prof. Shibban Lal Saksena (United Provinces: General): Mr. Vice-President, Sir, the amendment moved by Mr. Tyagi is a very important amendment. I have myself given notice of a similar amendment (No. 189) which runs as follows:
>
> That the following new Part be inserted after Part I and the subsequent Parts and articles be renumbered accordingly:-
>
> ‘Part I-A General Principles
>
> 6. The name of the Union shall be BHARAT.
>
> 7. Bharat shall be a sovereign, independent, democratic, socialist Republic.
>
> 8. All powers of government, legislative, executive and judicial, shall be derived from the people, and shall be exercisable only by or on the authority of the organs of the government established by this Constitution.
>
> 9. The National Flag of Bharat shall be the tricolour of saffron, white and green of pure hand-spun and hand-woven Khadi cloth, with the Dharmachakra of Asoka inscribed in blue in the centre in the middle stripe, the ratio between the width and breath being 2:1.
>
> 10. Hindi written in the Devanagri script shall be the National language of Bharat:
>
> Provided that each State in the Union shall have the right to choose its own regional language as its State language in addition to Hindi for use inside that particular State.
>
> 11. English shall be the second official language of Bharat during the transition period of the first five years of the inauguration of this Constitution.
>
> 12. The National Anthem of Bharat shall be the ‘Vandemataram’ which is reproduced in the Second Scheduled.
>
> [Note:-The subsequent Schedules be renumbered accordingly.]
>
> 13. The Arms of Bharat consist of the Three Lions above the pedestal and the Dharmachakra, as are depicted on the top of the Asoka pillar at Sarnath.
