2,686 per cent over the period since 1994. During this phase, its EBITDA had risen by nearly twelve times to Rs 2,163 crore.

At his last AGM, Ratan received a standing ovation from the shareholders who ‘thanked him for creating wealth for them over the years’. Overwhelmed, an emotional Ratan said, ‘I think everybody who comes to the end of his career wants to be able to cherish his experiences and over the years one can have good or bad experiences. But it’s a wonderful thing to have it end as happy, as positive, as warm a manner as today has been.’
