them according to type; formal wear, casual wear, fancy wear, accessories, mix and match items to create new outfits.

- Make a List

In order to follow mixing and matching, make a list of the items you need to purchase to complement your existing one. Make a note of new clothed to be purchased. This list is the basis of your wardrobe plan.

- Set Your Budget

Estimate the cost of the garments need to purchase.

- Determine Time and Place

Decide what time of year each piece needs to be purchased and what to purchase these items. For example, a great time to purchase a winter coat for cost savings is actually at the end of winter. The choice of store is determined by your budget and location. Allocate time and funds from your budget for shopping. Once per season is the recommended. A minimum of two hours should be allocated to each shopping.

- Finalizing the Wardrobe

After following the basic steps to create a plan for your wardrobe, shopping is much easier and far more cost effective. Organize your wardrobe to get the maximum efficiency and minimize the stress associated with getting dressed in the morning.

4.8.2 Wardrobe Planning for a Higher Secondary School Going Girls

Clothing is of greater importance during teenage than during any other period. It is a fascinating period of transition brought about by the onset of puberty. Profound physical changes, new found cognitive
