DO YOU KNOW?

- Most car companies themselves are named after their founders like Ford, Rolls-Royce, Austin, Ferrari, Lamborghini, Porsche, Renault, Citroen, Honda, Toyota (Toyoda), DeLorean etc.

- Car Radios Were Once Considered Dangerous.
- The first car radio was invented by Paul Gavin in 1929. It could be installed in most cars, and cost just over $100. In 1930, laws to ban the use of car radios while driving were proposed in Massachusetts and St. Louis because many feared them to be a dangerous distraction to drivers.
