

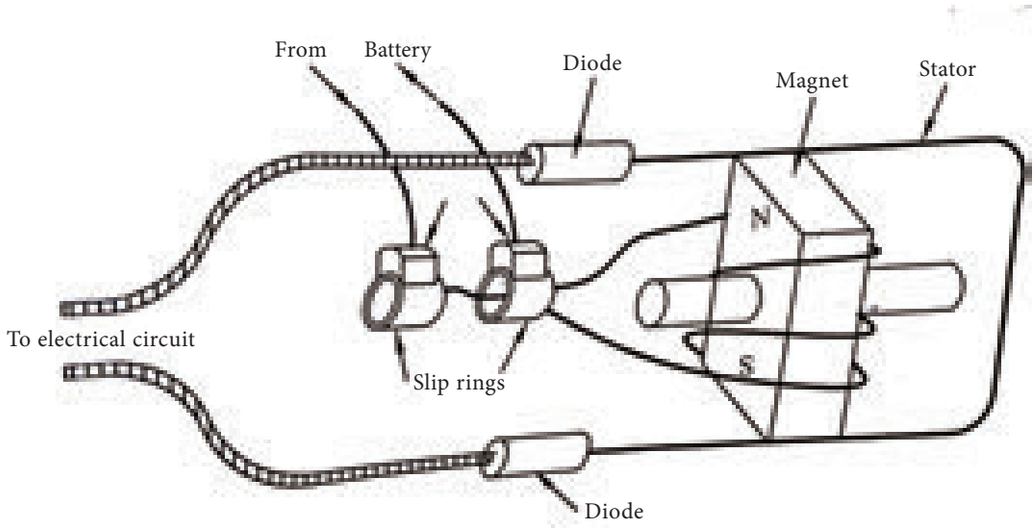

Figure10.9.3 Alternator

10.10.1 Important lights in a lighting system and its purpose

Sl. No.	Lights	Purpose
1	Head Lamps	To illuminate the road ahead at a reasonable distance with sufficient intensity during the night.
2	Tail Lamps	To show red at the rear of the vehicle. This gives an indication to the driver of the following vehicle.
3	Parking Lamps	To mark the front of a parked vehicle at night.
4	Fog Lamps	To illuminate the road ahead using yellow light during mist, winter season, hill station etc
5	Stop Lamps (or) Brake lamps	To indicate the application of brake to the following vehicle driver in order to slow down or stop the vehicle.
6	Direction indicating lamps	To indicate an intended change in direction by flashing light on the side towards which the turn will be made. The lamps are available in front and rear of the vehicle.
7	Panel Lamps	To illuminate the dashboard in order to see the readings indicating in various meters.
8	Interior Lamps	To illuminate the interior part/passenger compartment of the vehicle.
9	Reverse lamps	To illuminate the back of the vehicle and to indicate the reversing of the vehicle
10	Number Plate Lamps	To illuminate the number plate of the vehicle

BAE_ENG_Chapter_10.indd 208 12/20/2019 1:10:27 PM