3-Physical examination	➢ Maternal height and weight measurements to determine body mass index(BMI). ➢ Maternal weight should be measured at each antenatal visit 1. Look for palmar pallor. 2. Look for conjunctival pallor  3. Count respiratory rate in one minute. 4. Blood pressure measurement ➢ Measure BP in sitting position. ➢ If diastolic BP is 90 mm Hg or higher repeat measurement after 6 hour rest. ➢ If diastolic BP is still 90 mm Hg or higher ask the woman if she has: ➢ Severe headache ➢ Blurred vision ➢ Epigastric pain ➢ Check urine for protein
5.Investigations	➢ Haemoglobin, blood type ➢ Blood and urine sugar ➢ Urine analysis ➢ VDRL or RPR to screen for syphilis ➢ HBsAg testing ➢ HIV ➢ Ultra sound to confirm the pregnancy

AT EACH VISIT- Check the following and do Abdominal Examination

BLOOD PRESSURE	PEDAL EDEMA

XII_Nursing_Vocational_Unit 5.indd 158 1/11/2020 2:46:14 PM