11.1.2 Discuss the Principles of Guidance

Guidance is based on the following principles. (Gordon et al, 2008)

1. Guidance involves holistic development of the individual.

   It should be given in the context of total development of the personality.

2. Guidance recognizes individual differences.

   Each individual is different with specific needs, interests, and values. Students come from diverse cultural background. Therefore, it is necessary for teachers to be sensitive to these differences.

3. Dignity, respect and freedom should remain integral to the guidance process.

   Accept individuals with respect, dignity and freedom.

4. The guidance should be a continuous process.

5. Guidance uses good communication skills.

   Communication is an important skill needed in guidance. It includes both verbal and nonverbal communication.

6. Guidance is a team activity.

   Besides giving personal tutoring time, incorporating more people, expertise and multiple perspectives is highly effective.

7. Every contact is a precious opportunity for meaningful interaction.

   Every individual is unique and have their own different style of interaction.

8. The frequency and quality of interaction with the advisor is critical in helping students adjust to college life.

9. Students are expected to map out a path for success.

10. The core task is working with students to plot a course of action for their educational success.

11.1.3 Roles of the Advisor in Guidance

"You just have to have the guidance to lead you in the direction until you can do it yourself."

- Tina Yothers

11.2 COUNSELLING

Counselling is as old as society. In every-day life we find counselling goes on at many levels in a family set-up, parents counsel their children, in society doctors counsel patients, lawyers counsel clients and teachers counsel students.

STUDENT'S ACTIVITY

- Can practice the types of guidance by doing a Role play.

Counselling is a process of assistance extended by an expert in an individual situation
