Symptoms

- Swelling of the genitals and extremities
- Severe inflammation of the skin
- Inflammation of the lymphatic vessels
- Elephantiasis / Lymphatic Filariasis

Diagnosis

- Quantitative blood count (QBC)
- Immuno chromatographic test (ICI)
- Serological test
  - IgG_4
  - IgG_2

Management

- Ivermection
- Antihistamines or corticosteroids can reduce allergic reactions
- DEC (Diethylczartamazine)

Preventive Measure

- Control of mosquito
- Refrain from going outdoors
- Sleep inside the insecticide – treated mosquitoes net
- Cover yourself with full sleeves
- Avoid using strong perfume or cologne which draw the Mosquitoes.

DO YOU KNOW?

Over 120 million people are already infected with filariasis, about 40 million incapacitated by the disease.

2.5 DISEASE TRANSMITTED THROUGH ARTHROPOD

Arthropod – borne disease are transmitted by arthopods, which includes insects , spider and crustaceans

Arthropod vector

- Flies
- Fleas
- Ticks
- Lice

Mode of Transmission

Reservoir (Natural host) → Vector → Human

DO YOU KNOW?

Arthropod are largest single animal phylum , consisting of organisms with segmented bodies, Jointed legs or wings and exoskeletons.

Arthropod – Borne Diseases

- Malaria – Anopheles mosquito
- Yellow fever – Aedes mosquito
- Dengue fever – Aedes mosquito
- Encephalitis – Aedes / Culex/ fleas
- Epidemic typhus – Body louse
- Bubonic plague – flea

XII_Nursing_Vocational_Unit 2.indd 36 1/11/2020 2:25:18 PM